International Literacy Day is 8 September

More than 770 million adults worldwide do not know how to read. In an increasingly complex world, illiteracy condemns many of them to the lowest rungs of society.

To achieve our goals, we need every Rotarian

The Rotary Foundation has five important goals for this year. Goals that require great efforts, not only by the leadership of Rotary, such as club presidents, district governors, RI directors, and Foundation trustees, but by all 1.2 million Rotarians, everywhere in the world. With a more efficient Foundation, we will support the goal of RI President Sakuji Tanaka to build Peace Through Service.

No goal is ever achieved without a plan. Our club has a plan in place for achieving our goals for 2012-13, and now is the time to put it into action. Every Rotarian needs to commit today to achieve Rotary's 2012-13 goals. We can do it. We will do it, but only if every Rotarian in the world plays his or her part.

So, Rotarians, let's get started.
