HISTORIC MOMENTS - THE FIRST FOUR ROTARIANS On 23 February 1905, Paul P. Harris, Gustavus Loehr, Silvester Schiele, and Hiram E. Shorey gathered in Loehr's office for what would become known as the first Rotary club meeting. Rotary's founder, Harris , was born in Wisconsin, USA, on 19 April 1868. He was Rotary president from 1910 to 1912 and a member of the Rotary Club of Chicago until his death on 27 January 1947. Loehr , a mining engineer, was a Rotarian for only a few years, never holding office at the club or international level. But that first Rotary meeting was held in his office, Room 711 of the Unity Building in downtown Chicago. A Rotarian for only a few years, Shorey served as recording secretary during the club's first year. Schiele , a coal dealer, served as the Chicago club's first president in 1905 and Rotary International's third treasurer in 1945. Ruggles joined Rotary at its second meeting. He was treasurer of the Chicago club during its first year, president from 1908 to 1910, and a Rotary director from 1912 to 1913. He is known for having introduced singing to Rotary club meetings. His printing company, H.L. Ruggles & Co., printed the first issue of The National Rotarian and the first Rotary songbook.
