

CELEBRATING: Carla and Leslie du Toit with Annemarie Mostert.

New Rotary Club president

FAIRLAND resident Annemarie Mostert was inducted as the 39th president of the Rotary Club of Northcliff at an event at the Randpark golf club on 29 June.

Some of the guests included Louis von Zeuner deputy chief executive of Absa and Issie and Mushe Kirsh who received the Rotary International Paul Harris Fellowship recognition from the club.

"I describe myself as a lifelong volunteer and will assist the members of the club to increase their membership, enjoy great fun, fellowship and continue to manage and support community projects," said Mostert.

The Kirshes shared this honour with several distinguished South Africans including Nelson Mandela, Miriam Makeba, Mark Shuttleworth, Albertina Sisulu, Beyers Naudé and Helen Suzman.

The award was presented by former district governor Francis Callard.
