Once a year, extraordinary women need to be celebrated. Women contribute to the lives of ordinary South African in various ways and NMT's wool tannies need a special mention! On 9 August 2012, Annemarie Mostert visited Doreen Smith and the 28 wool tannies in Roosevelt Park, Iris Feyt in East Town and Elsie Emerich in Sophia Town, to thank them for their beautiful and unselfish donations of knitted items to thousands of poor people over the past 3 years. These grannies, at average age of 80 years, are our unsung heroes. Babies and children across Johannesburg were kept warm while the aged and disabled could cover their knees. Annemarie collected various items which will be handed out and has confirmed that the next collection will be in April 2013.

The tannies will keep knitting and a special plea was made for wool.....the more wool they receive, the more they can spread the warmth. Please contact Annemarie at 011 431 0511, if you are able to make a donation.
