This week's Foundation Thought is about Matching Grants. Jehovah Jireh Haven for Destitute Children is an orphanage in Port Alfred, South Africa, which was home to 57 AIDS orphans living in four small rooms. The orphanage had one small bathroom and no clean water. Because of a Rotary Foundation Matching Grant, the children at Jehovah Jireh now have hope. New beds, more commodores and showers, playground equipment, a commercial washing machine, and new kitchen equipment were added. Additionally, a greenhouse for growing their own vegetables was built. Best of all, the children have clean water. Bring hope to a child: Make your annual gift today.

Murder most foul

NORTHCLIFF D9400: Members and friends of the club recently received a dinner invitation from the confidential and private secretary of Sir Roger Watersdown from Yorkshire. The formal dinner was to be held at the Watersdown Mansion on 16 January 1937. Imagine their shock, when during the dinner their gracious host was murdered! Great fun and fellowship was had by all the guests as they tried to solve the mystery and uncover the nefarious murderer at the club's Murder Mystery Dinner that was held in September 2011... and not January 1937. Main picture: The guests invited to attend the dinner at the Watersdown Mansion. Right: Randy the actress (played by Andy Lottering) cosies up to the confidential and private secretary, who is also the long lost son, and murderer, of Sir Roger (played by Hanco Mostert).
